missioner of the General Land Office is invected to a communication from the Surveyor General of New Mexico and Arizons, at Sants Fe, New Mexico, under date of the 17th ult, reporting that on the 15th of December last he entered into a contract with the deputy surveyor for the establishment of the base principal meridian, standard parallels and exterior township lines. The initial point of the surveys is the point of the intersection of the base with the Glin and Salt river meridian. It consists of the conical hill, 150 feet in height, on the south side of the Gils, opposite its confluence with the Salado river. The geographical position of the initial point is 12 deg. 15 min. 46 sec. longitude west from Greenwich, and its north latitude, 33 deg. 22 min. 57 sec. The surveying contract provides for the establishment of 93 miles of the meridian, 36 miles of the principal base line east of the initial point; the 1st, 2d and 3d correction lines north, about 220 miles, ronning east and west of the meridian, crossing Hassaympa, Agus Fria and Rio San Francaise rivers; also, for the survey of the exterior township lines, embracing Prescott, the capital of the Territory of Arizons.

The entablishment of the aforesaid initiatory lines of public surveys in Arizona will furnish the necessary basis for the extension of surveys over the region of country north of Glia river, embracing Fort McDowell, situated on the Rio San Fran, town of Wickenburg, on Harreymps, Weaver, Woolsey's, and Prescott.

The Commissioner has advices as late as December 11 from the United States Survey-or General at Boise city, Idaho. Great in terest is reported as manifested in regard to surveys under the late mining laws.

E. A. Rollins:

DRAN Sin: Enclosed find $200 for excise tax on goods made and sold which were supposed not to be liable when sold, but have since been found and decided to be liable to 5 percent. tax. I send it to you because, I am told, if I send in a statement here, I will be subjected to penalties, do., that would break up my business, which, I think, would be unjust, as I have strictly paid the tax on goods that were known to be liable. The above amount is more than the net profit I have made on said goods; and though I do not desire to withhold anything due the Government, I feel that in paying this I am doing my full duty.

Respectfully, yours,

The sum of $70 was also recieved by Secretary McCulloch from a person in Jersey City, signing himself "Repentant," and which he desired to have credited to the Post Office

SEVERE CUTTING AFFRAY BETWEEN TWO DEPAIRMENT OLERAMS.—On New Year's night two Department clerks, Thomas Rys, of the Treasury, and J. A. Ayres, of the Quatermanter's Department, both sequalisances, want together to make the usual 'ceale' of the season, and in the course of their perambulations extended their visits to the house of Miss Benefatts Parkhuret, in Tiddler's Row, between Thirteenth and Thirteen-and-a-half streets, on D. where, after indulging in frequent potent drafts, they become somewhat rate in their deportment towards the fair inmates of the house A quarrel soon after ensured butween one of the lady bearders and Rys, who "pitched in" and was about to give her a wallopping after the most approved fashion, when Ayres interfered and protested against soon unmanly conduct. Heated with villalneus whisky, Rye turned upon his companion, and drawing a knife inflicted a sewere wound in his arms, which bled profusely. Onteries were immediately raised, to which Sergeant Pierce, of the Second ward, promptly responded, and calling a hack took both parties to the Central station-house. Drs. Keasby and Lincoln were immediately called in to staumah the blood, which was still flowing in a forrest from Ayres' wound. This they finally successeded in doing, but were unable to say whether the wound was of a fatal character or not.

A prellminary hearing was held yesterday morning before Justice Morvell, who committed Rye to the cells for a further hearing in the evening. Last the cells for a further hearing in the evening. The Ductor testified that there had been no hemorrhay of the wound since the night of the stabbing, and that none would occur unless in once the wounded man should be attacked either with tetans or cryaipelas. A CARE FOR THE BENEVOLENT.—We were yesterday informed that a woman, with several small children, was found recently in a shanty on Seventh etreet, near Virginia avenue, Island, in a state of the greatest destitution, the whole family being on the verge of actual death from oold and starvation. Our informant gave us no definite information as to the number of the house, if, indeed, it has any, but those who feel for the widow and the orphan can readily find this suffering family and ameliorate their present pitlable condition—if they are so disposed.

The Great Falls Gold Region.—Another company has been organised by Er.Gov. Cartin, of Pennsylvania, and Gen. Ruius Ingalls, formerly Chief Quartermaster of the "armies operating against Richmond," to further investigate the auriferous regions in the neighborhood of Great Falls, on the Potomae. All the companies already organized assert that they are at least paying the expenses of mining, and many that they are making a handsome profit over and above the cost of the labor necessarily required.

C. F. Cumming, 347 Seventh street, second door below the Northern Market, has just received an extensive and bandessee assortment of Ladies' High-Out Kid Button and Laced Baimorals; High-Out Kid Button and Laced Baimorals; High-Out Batton Lasting Galters; together with a large variety of Boots and Shoes for all ages and conditions, and both saxes. These goods are made expressly for the establishment of Mr. Cummin. Give him a sell, examine his stock, and make your purchases.

THE WEATHER YESTERDAY.—The winter air of yesterday was all day metodious with the chiming of sieigh balls, everyhody seeming desirons of having one more ride before the "beautiful snow" accende in exhibitions to the skies which gave it. Every imaginable style of turnout might be seen on the avenue during the day and evening, from the countryman's rude home made streature, composed of planks, to the elegant four-horse sleigh drawn by prancing steeds glittering with trapping fresh from the manufactory. The raid made on the move on New Year's residered locemotion of this kind not quite so delectable as on the previous day.

The snow on the avenue during the foremost gave persons day.

The snow on the avenue during the foremost gave the still the steight speed merrity on, and happy pairs spoke innguage "which no'se might be repeated," and as the sleighing disappeared, sought the quiet of the less frequented roads outside the city. In the evening we were sagain visited by a genite fall of mow, lasting, perhaps, an hour, after which the stars came out "twinkling in a crystalline delight," and promising better sleighing and skating at the park to-morrow.
